Subject: RE: Notice of Depositions

Bob and Trevor,

In light of our agreement yesterday, I was surprised to read your Response in Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Extend the April 16 Discovery Deadline for Certain Specified Depositions. The State's Response is at Dkt. 1957.

At FN 3, you represent to the Court that we want to take the 11 individual response costs depositions. I requested yesterday that you withdraw the response costs designation of testimony of the nine witnesses who you were not presenting pursuant to the 30(b)(6) notice. I stated: "Otherwise, we continue to request their individual depositions." See my e-mail below, 4/1/2009 at 11:50 a.m.

Shortly thereafter, you agreed to withdraw those designations making the individual depositions unnecessary. If you had any question, I thought you would have clarified prior to filing your response.

If there is any question, let this serve as notice that we are withdrawing our notices for the nine individuals for whom you have withdrawn "response costs" from their descriptions of testimony. In addition, now that you have advised us that Dan Parrish, Derek Smithee, and Shannon Philips are your designees pursuant to our 30(b)(6) notice, we withdraw the individual notices for Mr. Parrish, Mr. Smithee, and Ms. Philips also.

Here is my understanding:

- (1) the State's agrees to present Mr. Parrish, Mr. Smithee, and Ms. Philips on the 15th and 16th pursuant to Defendants' 30(b)(6) Amended Notice on response costs;
- (2) the State's agrees to withdraw the response costs designation of testimony for Janet Stewart, Teena Gunter; Dan Butler; Philip Moershel; Jim Leach; William Cauthron; Paul Koenig; Julie Chambers; and Tonyieka (Nikki) Cole; and
- (3) the Defendants withdraw the individual notices for the persons listed in (1) and (2) above.

If my understanding is correct, do we agree that the portion of the Defendants' Motion to Extend the April 16 Discovery Deadline for Certain Specified Depositions, Dkt. 1946, pp. 2-3, and the State's Response at 1957, pp. 2-3 and fn. 3, relating to "response costs" depositions is moot?

Theresa, I am responding for Trevor. We propose to present 30(b)(6) witnesses on April 15 & 16 regardless of what you do about the other fact witnesses, reserving the right to seek relief if you persist in wanting their depositions, and the Court extends the discovery cutoff for that purpose. We will revise the witness list to remove the "response cost" subject of testimony for the witnesses you suggest. Will you agree to the 30(b)(6) depositions on the 15th and 16th, rather than the 7th?

Bob

Subject: RE: Notice of Depositions

Trevor,

On October 17, 2008, Bruce Jones sent a letter to Richard Garren and David Page requesting that the State supplement its responses to Cargill's discovery requests generally. On March 13, 2009 and March 20, 2009, D. Ehrich referred to some specific examples of Requests for Production and Cargill, Inc. Interrogatory No. 10 that need supplementation. See D. Ehrich's 3/20/09 e-mail to Claire Xidis. Please advise which specific Requests for Production and Interrogatories you are planning on supplementing tomorrow.

We cannot make the determination as to the individual response costs depositions until we have reviewed your discovery responses and completed the 30(b)(6) deposition.

There are a total of 12 witnesses identified to testify about response costs.

You have offered to present three of those witnesses pursuant to our 30(b)(6) notice. We completed the deposition of Janet Stewart who the State designated to testify regarding "agency response costs." Ms. Stewart had virtually no substantive information about her testimony concerning agency response costs. Please withdraw the "response costs" description from Ms. Stewart and the other 8 witnesses designated to testify on "response costs." Those eight witnesses are: Teena Gunter; Dan Butler; Philip Moershel; Jim Leach; William Cauthron; Paul Koenig; Julie Chambers; and Tonyieka (Nikki) Cole. Otherwise, we continue to request their individual depositions.

Finally, I am still not clear whether the State's offer to present three witnesses on April 15 and 16 pursuant to our 30(b)(6) notice is contingent upon an agreement that we will not take the individual depositions. Please clarify the State's position on the 30(b)(6) notice. Thank you.

Theresa

Theresa,

We anticipate having our response cost documents supplemented to you tomorrow. We will present the three 30(b)(6) witnesses on April 15th and 16th. I dont understand why you need a 30b6 witness and individual fact witnesses as it is the duty of a 30b6 witness to be prepared. This is a waste of time and resources.

The Fact witnesses that you have noticed are past the discovery deadline anyway. I need to know if you will accept the State's proposal for the 15th and 16th. There is no reason for us to have bother the court with this issue. Please let me know as soon as possible or we will be forced to file a protective order.

Thanks,

Trevor

Bob,

I look forward to talking to Trevor tomorrow.

We are hopeful that we will receive supplementation to our discovery requests to include information regarding the State's alleged response costs tomorrow as previously requested. See Letter from D. Ehrich attached.

I told Trevor yesterday in person and confirmed in my e-mail that we continue to request the remaining individual depositions. We cannot make the determination regarding the individual witnesses until we receive our discovery responses and complete the 30(b)(6) depositions. Is it the State's position that it will not proceed with the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition on response costs unless we agree in advance that we will not to take the remaining response costs witnesses?

Theresa, Trevor is in deposition and asked me to convey to you that the State can put up 3 30(b)(6) witnesses on response costs, and proposes to do so on April 15 and 16. We anticipate calling Shannon Phillips, Derek Smithee, and Dan Parrish as the 30(b)(6) witnesses.

These witnesses should be in lieu of the 11 fact witnesses previously noticed by the Defendants.

Trevor will be back in the office tomorrow to discuss this with you.

Bob

Trevor,

The 30(b)(6) deposition on response costs is noticed to commence on April 7, 2009. As we discussed today, please provide us with the identity of your designees and a proposed schedule. If you intend to propose alternative dates, please promptly provide us with such dates for our consideration.

We previously requested the depositions of the individual witness designated to testify regarding response costs. When we heard no response, we had no choice but to move forward and notice the individual depositions. Upon prompt completion of the 30(b)(6) deposition (on or near April 7), we may determine that it is not necessary to depose each individual witness. We cannot make that determination until the completion of the 30(b)(6). So, we renew our request for the depositions of the individual witnesses.

We look forward to your prompt response. Thank you.

Theresa

Subject: Re: Notice of Depositions

For the the 30(b)(6) Notices issued by Cargill regarding response costs only, the State proposes the following:

1. Present a 30(b)(6) witness to testify about each agencies seperate response cost.
2. This will be 3 or 4 witnesses over a day and half.
3. Defendants will withdraw all notices below.
4. In any event, the notices are noticed for past the discovery cut-off.

Have a good weekend,

Trevor
